An airfield measuring approximately $3\frac{1}{2} \times 4$ km has been laid out here. Bounded on the west by the Zloczow road, the field is bordered on the north by a wood, and on the east and south by cultivated land. There are three concrete runways about 20 meters wide which extend approximately 1 km in a north-south direction. Seven hangars housed 30 aircraft of unidentified type in March 1946.
